INDEX TO VOLUME CXXI.

Aboukir, 574.
Adventures on the Continent, 621.
African travel, twenty years of, 682.
Akrotiri peninsula, 434, 437.
Althorp, Lord, and Miss Martineau, 489.
AMERICA, THE SITUATION IN, 196—fallacies of the Declaration of Independence, 197—origin of Republican party, 200—it carries Lincoln as President, ib.—secession of the Southern States, ib.—Andrew Johnson President, ib.—State elections, 201—"carpet-bag" policy, 202—Grant President, 203—Tenure of Office Bill, 205—Democratic successes, 207—Cincinnati Convention, 208—contest between Tilden and Hayes, ib.—manipulation of votes, 209 et seq.—committees of investigation, 213—telling the votes, 215—prospects of parties, 217—necessity for reform, 219 et ad fin.
American connoisseurs, 357.
Andrassy Note, 115, 116, 125, 251, 365, 637.
ANGLO-INDIAN TONGUE, THE, 541.
Anoghia in, Crete, 453.
Aptera, 437, 439, 441 et seq.
Ardahan, 762, 769.
Armenia, the war in, 757, 769.
ARMY, THE FRENCH, IN 1877, 391.
ARTILLERY, THE ROYAL; A CLAIM FOR JUSTICE, 586—report of the Royal Commission on promotion and retirement, ib.—exclusion of artillery from general staff, 587—old prejudice against the corps, 588—promotion, 590—higher education of artillery officers, 591—popular mistake regarding pay, 592—abolition of regimental colonelcies, 593—substitution of district for brigade commands, 594—tendency of proposed change, 595 et ad fin.
Athens, 430.
Atkinson, Mr., and Harriet Martineau, 493.
Austria and the Eastern Question, 258.
Austrian Society for Relief in War, 156 et seq.
Aylesbury speech, Lord Beaconsfield's, 116.
Bagomayo, 686, 700.
Baker, Sir Samuel, his Nile expedition, 691.
BALZAC, 300—his genius, ib.—early career, 303—struggles, 305—wild speculations, 306—life about town, 309—the Chouans, 310—Histoire des Treize, 311—César Birotteau, 313—Père Goriot, 314—Balthazar Claes, 317—Eugénie Grandet, 319—Peau de Chagrin, 323.
Bangweolo, Lake, 690, 693, 694.
Barn-burners, political party in America, 199.
Barth, Dr., discoveries in Africa, 683.
Batoum, 744.
Beaconsfield, Lord, his Eastern policy, 110—patriotism in Opposition, 112, 118—Guildhall speech, 122, 362—on Servia, 254—on a policy of coercion, 370—speech on the Eastern Question, 378.
Berechtsgaden, 347—its salt-mines, 349.
Berthaut, General, French war minister, 392.
Boniface of Montserrat, 445.
Bosnia, 124, 247, 251, 261.
Bright, Mr., on the Eastern Question, 118 et seq.
British interests in the Eastern Question defined by Mr. Cross, 739—by the Chancellor of the Exchequer, 740—how affected by the war, 765.
Browning, Mrs., letters of, reviewed, 193.
Bruce's African explorations, 682, 684.
Brussels Congress, the, on war, 174.
Bulgaria, 124, 246, 247, 261.
Burton, Captain Richard, African explorations, 688 et seq.—his selection of east coast route, 689—explorations in West Africa, 692.
Butler's, General, career, 201.
Byzantine empire in Crete, 445.
Cairngorms, 287.
Cambridge, Duke of, opposed to artillery majors, 590.
Cameron, Commander, 687, 689—starts on Livingstone search expedition, 699—explores Tanganyika, 701—his conclusions, 703.
Campbell's, Sir George, recent view of Turkey, 120, 124.
Canning's nervousness in oratory, 35.
Caracciolo, execution of, 579 et seq.—apparition of, 581.
Carolina, South, contest for government in, 209.

"Carpet-baggers" in the Southern States, 302.
Canaapscal, salmon-fishing in, 733.
César Birotteau, by Balzac, 313.
Chamberlain, Governor, of South Carolina, 209.
Chaplin, Mr., on Mr. Gladstone, 631.
Chapman's, M. W., Autobiography of Harriet Martineau reviewed, 472.
Chouans, Les, by Balzac, 310.
Circassians, insurrection of, 761 et seq.
Classical quotations in parliamentary speeches, 38.
Coaches without wheels, 205.
Colosseum, 359.
Commission on army retirement and promotion, Royal, 586.
COMMONS, INSIDE THE HOUSE OF, 25—the House in work-a-day dress, ib.—the locale of parties, 26—forms observed in addressing the House, ib.—costume of members, 27—procedure on an ordinary night, 28—"prayers," ib.—private business, 29—presentation of petitions, ib.—from the Corporation of London, 30—committee on public petitions, 31—language of petitions, ib.—notices of motion, 32—precedence of notices, ib.—"dummy" bills, 33—fixing the second reading, ib.—questions, 34—order of the day, ib.—"catching the speaker's eye," ib.—maiden speeches, 35—moving the adjournment, 36—read speeches, 37—parliamentary oratory, 38—classical quotations, ib.—mannerisms in speaking, 39—risibility of the House, ib.—prohibition of personalities, 40—divisions, ib.—telling in the lobbies, 41—"Supply Committee," 42—"moving the previous question," 43—ladies' gallery, 44—smoking-room, ib.
Conference at Constantinople, 108 et seq.
CONFERENCE, THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE, 245—its unexpected collapse, ib.—the causes, 246—its history, 247—preliminary conference, 248—its proposals, 249—plenary conference, ib.—the Turkish victory, 255—Russia's change of front, 256—the influence of Germany, 257 et seq.—the views of the other Powers, 259—the policy of Britain, 260 et ad fin.
"Conference," the St. James's Hall, 112 et seq.—its party object, 114.
Congo, exploration of the, 684—its headwaters, 688.
Congress and the Presidential election, 217.
'Consuelo,' by George Sand, 76.
CRETE, 428—medicinal herbs, 434—wines, 435—mythology, 438—proverbial mendacity of people, 439—roads, 440—inscriptions, 443—desolation, 445—Turkish misgovernment, 446 et seq.—condition of Christian population, 451—political importance to England, 455.
Cross, Mr., speech on the Eastern Question, 760.
CUPID SCHOOLED, by H. K., 105.
'Daily News' fund in Franco-Prussian war, 151.
Debate on the Eastern Question, 759—its significance, 760.
DEBATE, LORD DERBY'S DESPATCH, AND THE, 737.
Decken, Baron von der, murder of, 686.
'Deerbrook,' by Harriet Martineau, 490.
Derby, Lord, communicates with the five Powers, 116—speeches on the Eastern Question, 367, 377—explanation of the Protocol, 634, 636, 640—his despatch, 758 et seq.
Dessin, Hotel, 612.
'Deux Frères,' by George Sand, 91.
DEVIOUS RAMBLES WITH A DEFINITE OBJECT, No. IV., 281.
Dillon, Dr., death of, 686, 701.
"Ditchers," an appellation of Calcutta citizens, 544.
Donatello's St. John the Baptist, 357.
DOOR, THE SHADOW OF THE, 1.
Dunant, M., his impetus to philanthropy in war, 154—on prisoners of war, 173.
Dutch partiality for canal communications, 296—railways, ib. 298.
EAST, THE STORM IN THE, 749.
Eastern Question, the, 108 et seq.—policy of Government in, 113 et seq.—debate on, 758 et seq.
Edward, Thomas, a Scotch naturalist, life of, by Smiles, reviewed, 175.
Egypt, its neutralisation important, 760, 761.
Elliot, Sir Henry, on the Conference, 509.
Erzeroum, its political importance, 676, 757.
'Eugénie Grandet,' by Balzac, 319.
Fawcett, Mr., on the Eastern Question, 252, 638.
FEATHER, A, ETC., by J. R. S., 680.
Feats on the Fiord, by Harriet Martineau, 491.
Ferdinand I. of Naples, 576 et seq.—his restoration, 581.
Firman of Gulhané, 362.
Fishing in the Franconian Schweitz, 285.
'Flamarande,' by George Sand, 91.
Florence in winter, 356—its art galleries, 357.
Florida election, 210, 214.
Fox, Mr., his invective against Nelson, 583.
FRENCH ARMY IN 1877, THE, 391—its progress, 392—new laws of mobilisation, 393—their working, 395—their results, 398—last conscription returns, 399—strength of the reserves, 400—concentration, 401—fortified points, 403—territorial army, 404—combatant strength of country, 406—pacific disposition of France, 408 et ad fin.
Gaming tables, public, 622.
General staff, exclusion of Artillery from, 589.
Geneva Convention, the, 153—Voigts Rhetz's commentary on, 168.
Gessi, Signor, navigates Albert Nyanza, 698.
Gisela route in Tyrol, 352.
Gladstone, Mr., and the Eastern Question, 109 et seq.—speech at St. James's Hall, 114 — his pamphlets, 261 — responsibility for Russian mobilisation, 364—recommendation of violence, 371—humiliating position, 373 et seq. — reply to Mr. Chaplin, 378, 631—resolutions on Eastern Question, 759 et seq.—their withdrawal, 763—refusal to put a policy before the country, 744—his inconsistency, 747.

"Golden Bridge," the, 634.
Gondokoro mission, 684.
Gordon, Colonel, his African expedition, 690.
Gortschakoff's, Prince, Circular, 361, 371, 506, 512, 631, 633.
Goschen, Mr., on Eastern Question, 746.
Grant, Colonel J. A., expedition with Speke, 689—'Walk across Africa,' 690.
Grant, President, 203 et seq.
Granville, Lord, speech at opening of Parliament, 365 et seq.—on the Protocol, 639—right to represent Lord Palmerston, 640.
Grey, Earl, on the Eastern Question, 506 et seq.
Guildhall speech of the Premier, 110, 113.
Hallowell, Captain, presents a coffin to Nelson, 583.
Hamilton, Lady, and Nelson, 574.
Harcourt, Sir William, on the Conference, 252—his letter to the 'Times,' 254.
HARRIET MARTINEAU, 472.
Hartington, Lord, assents to Turkish misgovernment, 121—speech at opening of Parliament, 365 et seq.—throws over Mr. Fawcett's motion, 638—speech on Mr. Gladstone's resolutions, 745.
Hatti-Humayoon of 1856, 362.
Hayes, Mr., candidate for American Presidency, 208 et seq.
'Heart of Africa,' by Dr. Schweinfurth, 694.
HEINE, TRANSLATIONS FROM, BY THEODORE MARTIN, 504.
Herzegovina, 124, 251, 361.
'Histoire des Treize,' by Balzac, 311.
H. K.: CUPID SCHOOLED, 105.
Home-Rulers beaten at Salford, 647.
Horne, R. H., letters addressed to, by Mrs. Browning, reviewed, 193.
HOW I CAUGHT MY FIRST SALMON: A CANADIAN SKETCH, 728.
Huskisson, Mr., his tragic death, 294.
Ibrahim, Lake, 696.
Ida, Mount, 430, 443, 453.
Ignatieff, General, 249, 253, 255 — his mission, 514 et seq., 631.
'Indiana,' by George Sand, 80.
Inns, Continental, in the olden time, 618.
INSIDE THE HOUSE OF COMMONS, 25.
Italy and the Eastern Question, 259.
'Jacques,' by George Sand, 84 et seq.
Jasper, cutting of, 291.
JOTTINGS FROM THE TYROL AND ITALY; A WANDERER'S LETTER, No. V., 347.
J. R. S.: THE SINGER'S PRIZE, 221—A FEATHER, 680 — SO IS THE STORY TOLD, ib. — THISBE, 681 — THREE HOUSES, ib.
Julien, Hôtel, 612.
Kainairdji, treaty of, 516.
Keba Rega, 697.
Kellogg, Governor, in Louisiana, 207.
Khania, in Crete, 432, 447.
Khedive's, the, annexations in Central Africa, 696.
Kinglake's 'Invasion of the Crimea' quoted, 364.
Kingsley, Charles, his letters and memorials, reviewed, 183.
Kisahueli language, 685, 700.
Klackzo, M., on Russia, 258.
Kloblecher, Herr, travels in Africa, 684.
Konig's-see, scenery of the, 348.
Krapf's, Dr., explorations, 685.
Lacerda's African explorations, 705.
Laing, Major, explorations in Africa, 683.
'Lake Regions of Central Africa,' by Burton, 689.
Linant, M., expedition to Victoria Nyanza, 697.
Lincoln, President, 200.
LINDAU'S, RUDOLPH, WEARINESS: A TALE FROM FRANCE, 94.
Lithgow's travels in Crete, 434, 439, 446.
Lithology, the pursuit of, 283.
Liverpool and Manchester railway, its opening, 294.
Livingstone, Dr., first journeys, 686—cross Africa, 687—discoveries north of Zambesi, 691 — last expedition, 693—death, 694—Livingstone search expedition, 699.
Loftus, Lord Augustus, his interview with the Czar, 739.
Long, Colonel Chaillé, Chief of Colonel Gordon's staff, 686—visit to the Niam-Niams, 695 — interview with Mtesa, 696.
LORD DERBY'S DESPATCH AND THE DEBATE, 737.
LORELEY, translated by Theodore Martin, 505.
L. W. M. L.: THE WAR-CALDRON, 627.
Louisiana, condition of, 207 — election, 210.
MacCormack's, Mr., services in Franco-Prussian war, 163.
Madeira wines, derived from Crete, 435.
Maizan, Lieutenant, murder in Africa of, 686.
Majors in the artillery, 590.
Malavese wine, 435.
Malzac, M., African explorer, 684.
'Mare au Diable,' by George Sand, 75, 86 et seq.
MARTIN, THEODORE, translations from Heine, 504.
MARTINEAU, HARRIET, Autobiography reviewed, 472—early years, 476 et seq. —influence of her Unitarian training, 480—first literary efforts, 481—political economy tales, 484 et seq.—their success, 487 — literary lionism, 488 — consulted by Government, 489 — 'Deerbrook,' 490 — acrid criticism, 492 — settled at Ambleside, 493—connection with Mr. Atkinson, ib.—character summarised, 496.

May's, Sir Erskine, 'Law Privileges, Proceedings, and Usage of Parliament,' 25, 31.
Melidoni, Cretan patriot, 446.
Mendacity of the Cretans accounted for, 449-453.
Meran, 352—a sanitarium for consumptives, 354.
Miani, M., African explorer, 684.
Midhat Pasha, made Grand Vizier, 249—attitude at the Conference, 251 et seq., 633—his constitution, 255, 362—his fall, 375, 513.
Ministry, the, its Eastern policy, 117—free course of action, 121—efforts at accommodation, 123—relationship to the Conference, 261—position at opening of Parliament, 363—Liberal criticisms, 365—exposition of the treaties, 367 et seq.—continued triumph in Parliament, 379—avoiding new international engagements, 515—opposed to policy of coercion, 633—motive for joining in Protocol, 640—popularity proved by elections, 647—policy upheld by Parliament, 747.
Minos, the city of Minos, 438.
Moffat, Mr., death of, 686.
Moltke, Von, his description of Turkish cavalry, 761.
Mombas, services of mission to African exploration, 685—starting-point for interior, 686.
Monbuttoo, 694, 695.
Montenegro, 124, 253, 512, 517, 636.
Mount Vernon, Washington's retreat, 204.
Mozungera, murderer of Maizan, 686.
Music, its decline in Italy, 358.
Musurus Pasha, 362.
NAPLES, NELSON IN THE BAY OF: A WANDERER'S LETTER, No. VI., 571.
"Nasone," nickname of Ferdinand I. of Naples, 577.
National Aid Society, origin, 159—its operations, 160 et seq.—its future, 169—its defects, 171.
Naturalist, Life of a Scotch, reviewed, 175.
Neapolitan Lazzaroni, 572, 584.
NEAVES, LORD, obituary notice, 380—early contributions to 'Maga,' 383—'Songs and Verses,' 385—'Greek Anthology,' 389.
NELSON IN THE BAY OF NAPLES: A WANDERER'S LETTER, No. VI., 571—reception by the King and Queen, 573—his popularity, 575—intimacy with Lady Hamilton, 576—flight of the King, 578—execution of Caracciolo, 580—his apparition, 581—still life in Naples, 584.
Neutrality and aid in war, 151, 161.
Neutrality, proclamation of, 739.
NEW BOOKS, BIOGRAPHIES, 175—Life of a Scotch Naturalist, 175 et seq.—Charles Kingsley: his Letters and Memorials of his Life, 183—Rahel: her Life and Letters, 191—Letters of Elizabeth B. Browning, 193.
NEW YEAR, THE, 108.
Nice, spread of gambling at, 623.
Nile, Blue, traced by Bruce, 683.
Nohant, Château de, early residence of George Sand, 75.
Northcote, Sir Stafford, on the Eastern policy of Government, 125—Speech on Mr. Gladstone's resolutions, 761.
Nyanza, Lake Victoria, discovered by Speke, 688—Lake Albert discovered, 689, 694.
Nyassa, Lake, 693.
Oberstein, its ornamental stonework, 281.
Oliphant, Mr. Laurence, on the Eastern Question, 641 et seq.
OPENING OF PARLIAMENT, THE, 361.
Opposition sympathy with national enemies, 111—Duty of an, defined by Mr. Disraeli, 112.
Opposition, the, its factious agitation, 111—on the Address, 363 et seq.—awkward position, 372—on the Eastern Question, 638 et seq.—disorganised condition, 647—shrinks from policy of coercion, 766.
Park, Mungo, his travels, 682 et seq.
PARLIAMENT, THE OPENING OF, 361—the position of parties, 362—the debate on the Address, 363—the Opposition's change of front, 365—its awkward position, 372—the debate in the Lords, 376—Lord Beaconsfield's vindication of his policy, 378.
Parliamentary oratory, change in tone of, 38—mannerisms in, 39—personalities in, 40.
Parthenopean Republic, 578.
Pashley's 'Travels in Crete,' 443, 445.
PAULINE, Part I.: In the Hebrides, 223—Part II. ib., 324—Part III. ib., 456—Part IV. Blundellsaye, 519—Part V. ib., 707.
Pay of Royal Artillery, mistake regarding, 592 et seq.
'Peau de Chagrin,' by Balzac, 322.
Pen behind the ear, significance of habit, 292.
Père Goriot by Balzac, 314.
PHILANTHROPY IN WAR, 150—its province, ib.—an obstacle to neutrality, ib. et seq.—"Bulletin International," 153—origin of relief societies, ib.—conferences, 154—organisations, 155—neutral aid to belligerents, 158—efforts in Britain, 159—difference from Continental, 160—national committee, ib.—objections to neutral help, 161—violations of neutrality, 162—surgical aid, 163—stores, ib.—abuses, 165—services of National Aid Society, ib.—our military medical arrangements insufficient for a great war, 172—relief to prisoners, ib.—an international code of war, 174.
Pipes a badge of caste in Germany, 292.
Pococke's voyage to Crete, 429.
POLITICAL SITUATION, THE, 506—subdued tone of the Opposition, ib. et seq.—impossibility of regulating Turkish reforms from without, 508 et seq.—the Russian and Turkish Circulars, 512—the international Protocol mooted, 514—indisposition of Government to contract new engagements, 515—the position in the East, 517.
Portuguese in India, 547.

Presidential election in America, 196.
PROCEEDINGS OF THE CONFERENCE, THE, 245.
Promotion in the Royal Artillery, 590 et seq.
PROTOCOL AND THE WAR, THE, 613—Prince Gortschakoff's Circular, 631—answer suggested by Russia in form of London Protocol, 633—used as an ultimatum, 635—Russia's exasperating declaration, 636—futility of diplomatic efforts, 637—impossibility of coercion, 640—Liberal responsibility for the war, 643—confidence in the Ministry proved by recent elections, 647.
Quebec, 729.
Questions in the House of Commons, 34.
Quotations, classical, in parliamentary oratory, 38.
Rahel, her life and letters, reviewed, 191.
RAILWAY JOURNEY, A, 497.
RAMBLES ROUND TRAVEL, 605—Bacon's apothegm on travel, ib.—tourists in the olden time, 607—the Continent in Bacon's time, 609 — Arthur Young's tour, 612 — Continental inns, ib.—the travelling chariot, 614 — the golden age of travel, 615—Cornelius O'Dowd as a travelling companion, 616 — off the beaten paths, 617—English insular reserve, 619 — adventurers, 621 — play, 622—changed conditions of travel, 624 et ad fin.
Reade, Mr. Winwood, his travels in Africa, 692.
Recruiting laws in France, effect of new, 393.
Red Cross badge abroad, 167.
Reeve's, Dr., journal, 613.
Reouf Pasha, governor of Crete, 432 et seq., 448.
Republican party in America, 200.
Reserve, English, abroad accounted for, 619.
Rock Crystals, 286.
Roebuck, Mr., on the Opposition, 632, 646.
Rome, changes at, 625.
Roumania, 247, 251, 753, 763.
ROYAL ARTILLERY, THE, A CLAIM FOR JUSTICE, 586.
Ruffo's, Cardinal, campaign against Naples, 578.
Russia—explanation of her mission, 247—absurd position at Conference, 253—her relations with Germany, 257 — with Austria, 258 — Russian Circular, 361, 371, 372, 512 et seq., 631, 633—modifications of policy, 510—a difficulty of receding, 511 — idea of a Protocol, 514 et seq.—difficulties, 517—Liberals responsible for mobilisation, 631—exasperating menace appended to Protocol, 636—impotence of diplomacy to arrest war, 637—the difficulties of the situation, 751—the crossing of the Danube, 754 — the war in Asia, 757—her prospects in the campaign, 770.
Russian Society for Relief in War, 157 et seq.—its work in Montenegro and Servia, 162—its dubious neutrality, ib.—an example to Britain, 170.
Safvet Pasha, 246, 250—his Circular, 370, 512.
Salford election, 647.
Salisbury, Lord, his mission, 123 et seq.—in unison with General Ignatieff, 247, 249—speech on the Eastern Question, 377.
Salmon-fishing in Canada, 731 et seq.
SAND, GEORGE, 70—love of country life, 71 — Bohemian nature, 72 — Autobiography, 73 — early training, 74 — its influence on her writings, 75 — convent life, 77—marriage, ib.—incompatibility and separation, 78—vie de gamin, 79—origin of pseudonym, ib. — literary struggles, ib. — novels, 81 — 'Indiana' 81 — 'Jacques,' 84 — 'Nanon,' 86 — 'Le Meunier d'Angibault,' 87—'La Mare au Diable,' 89 — 'Flamarande,' 91—'Deux Frères, ib.—character,' 93.
Sandwith, Consul, in Crete, 433, 436, 439, 449.
Schweinfurth, Dr., his African travels, 694—results of his exploration, 695.
Servia, 124, 251, 253 et seq., 370, 375, 376, 508, 512, 517.
SHADOW, THE, OF THE DOOR, 1.
Sheridan in Louisiana, 207.
SINGER'S PRIZE, THE, by J. R. S., 221.
SITUATION IN AMERICA, THE, 196.
Smiles, Samuel, 'Life of a Scotch Naturalist,' by, reviewed, 175.
Smoking-room of the House of Commons, 44 et seq.
SO IS THE STORY TOLD, by J. R. S., 680.
Soukhur kale, 758, 761, 769.
Speaker, the, of the House of Commons, 26, 35—"catching the eye" of, 34 et seq.—bowing to, 26 et seq.—leaving the chair, 42.
Speke, Captain, his description of Egyptian brutality, 684—discovers Tanganyika and Victoria Nyanza, 688.
Spells for fair wind, 429.
Sport, German notions of, 285.
Spratt's, Admiral, travels in Crete, 442.
Staff, general exclusion of Royal Artillery from, 589.
Stanley, Mr., 690—finds Dr. Livingstone, 693—explorations, 699—views about Lake Tanganyika, 703.
St. John, Order of, its philanthropic efforts in war, 156 et seq.
STORM IN THE EAST, THE, 749.
Stuart monument in St. Peter's, 360.
Subalterns in the Royal Artillery, 586, 592.
Suez Canal, its neutralisation important, 760, 761, 765.
Sunday in the backwoods, 730.
Talleyrand on cards, 597.
Tanganyika discovered by Speke and Burton, 688—Cameron's observations, 701—Stanley's theory, 703.
Tchad Lake, 683, 694.
Territorial army, French, 404.
Teutonic Knights, the, their philanthropic efforts in war, 156.
Thiers, Abbé, his 'Histoire des Perruques,' 293.
Thieves, a digression on, 297.
THISBE, BY J. R. S., 681 — THREE HOUSES, ib.
Torpedoes, their uncertain value, 756.

TRANSLATIONS FROM HEINE, BY THEODORE MARTIN, 504.
TRAVEL, RAMBLES ROUND, 605.
Treaty of Paris, validity of, 109 et seq.
Tripartite treaty, 644.
Triple alliance, 257, 510.
Turkey, her treaty rights, 109—European indifference to Turkish misgovernment, 121—devising reforms, 124—her position at Conference, 245 et seq.—failure of attempts at dictation, 246—first symptoms of obstinacy, 249—position vindicated, 253—new constitution, 362—importance of Turkish integrity to Europe, 373—impracticability of Conference's suggestions, 509—Safvet Pasha's Circular, 512—difficulty of returning to peace policy, 517—satisfaction of Powers with acceptance of reforms, 634—rejection of Protocol, 637—Christian policy, 641 et seq.
TWENTY YEARS OF AFRICAN TRAVEL, 682—ancient knowledge of Africa, ib.—modern explorations, 683—Barth's discoveries, ib.—Nile expeditions, 684—explorations from east coast, 685—dangers, 686—Livingstone's first journeys, ib. et seq.—cross Africa, 686—Burton and Speke, 688—discovery of Tanganyika and Victoria Nyanza, ib.—Speke and Grant, 689—Baker's expedition, 691—explorations from west, 692—Livingstone's last expedition, 693—Dr. Schweinfurth, 694—the Khedive's expedition, 696—Mr. Stanley's travels, 698—Commander Cameron's expedition, 699—exploration of Lake Tanganyika, 701—future of the African continent, 706.
Wainwright, Jacob, Livingstone's servant, 701.
WANDERER'S LETTER, A: No. V. JOTTINGS FROM THE TYROL AND ITALY, 347—No. VI., NELSON IN THE BAY OF NAPLES, 571.
WAR-CALDRON, THE, BY L. W. M. L., 627 et seq.
WAR, PHILANTHROPY IN, 150.
War, the commencement of the, 749 et seq.—on the Danube, 753—in Asia, 756.
WEARINESS: A TALE FROM FRANCE, BY RUDOLPH LINDAU, 94.
WHIST AT OUR CLUB, 597.
Whitby, its snake-like ammonites, 290.
Williams, Sir Fenwick, of Kars, 589.
Wines of Crete, 435 et seq.
Wolseley, Sir Garnet, his expedition to Coomassie, 692.
WOMAN-HATER, A, Part VIII., 47—Part IX., 127—Part X., 263—Part XI., 410—Conclusion, 649.
Woolwich, Royal Military Academy, 591.
Worms, Baron Henry de, on Eastern Question, 124.